

1. In what book did a character ask the question, "You're not allergic to red, are you"?
Phineas L. MacGuire Erupts! Dowell p. 86
2. In what book does a note say, "Pieces of your face were disappearing. It looks OK now. What's going on?"
Invisible Harry, The Jocelyn p. 49
3. In what book is there this line: "It's practically a rule that if you can draw, people will want to be your friend"?
Phineas L. MacGuire Erupts! Dowell p. 93
4. In what book do sixth-graders exit in a herd right after lunch, when they are the most hungry, and go to the deli down the block?
Invisible Harry, The Jocelyn p. 75
5. In what book did a character say, "I could climb a mountain and not even get tired! I could conquer the world"?
World According to Humphrey, The Birney p. 82
6. In what book did a family have a Saturday night routine of having snacks in the livingroom and spreading out on the sofa to watch TV"?
Nutz Schwartz p. 66
7. In what book did a character say, "Sorry, Mom. My friends are here. I'm off. I'll do my chores later"?
Nutz Schwartz p. 47
8. In what book did two boys make a maze out of old blocks?
World According to Humphrey, The Birney p. 94
9. In what book did a character say, "I know we have to leave. I just don't know where we're going to go"?
Hunter Walters p. 139
10. In what book does someone think that police officers are the very best things she knows, next to rhubarb pudding?
Pippi Longstocking Lindgren p. 39
11. In what book do you read this description "each pair of well-cut pants had a small pocket for a gold pocket watch"?
Miraculous Journey of Edward Tulane, The DiCamillo p. 7

12. In what book does a character state "he has many different outfits. And he has his own pajamas, too, they are made of silk"?
Miraculous Journey of Edward Tulane, The DiCamillo p. 42
13. In what book did a character say, "You can't kill what you can't catch"?
Hunter Walters p. 182
14. In what book did a character say never to "turn your back on a dog. And it's a good idea to turn off the TV once in a while"?
World According to Humphrey, The Birney p. 122
15. In what book did a character say, "It's very hard to kill something you've spoken to. It's hard to hate something after you see how connected we all are"?
Hunter Walters p. 82
16. In what book did a character lean "in close and touch his/her warm nose to another character's cold nose"?
Nutz Schwartz p. 135
17. In what book did a character say, "The baby does everything you say. It must think you are its mother"?
Nutz Schwartz p. 38
18. In what book was "a house filled with friends and neighbours" while one character "played the piano while everyone sang carols and drank hot cider"?
World According to Humphrey, The Birney p. 121
19. In what book does a girl write an Ode to a Popsicle?
Fabled Fourth Graders of Aesop Elementary School, The Fleming p. 84
20. In what book did a character offer these words of advice: "Work together. Remember to watch out for each other"?
Hunter Walters p. 104
21. In what book is there a chapter called, "The Bad, the Beautiful and the Stinky"?
Fabled Fourth Graders of Aesop Elementary School, The Fleming p. 98
22. In what book does the main character experience "the Rosie Affair" and the "Vacuum-Cleaner Incident"?
Miraculous Journey of Edward Tulane, The DiCamillo p. 19
23. In what book does the babysitter whisper to "use the two-minute rule by not saying anything for at least two minutes, in case a parent comes" back?
Invisible Harry, The Jocelyn p. 19

24. In what book does a character ignore someone's snoopy smile and shut the door?
Invisible Harry, The Jocelyn p. 72
25. In what book is the quote, "Ick!" he squealed. "Your breath is stinky. Stinky like my dog, Moe's. He licks his butt" ?
Fabled Fourth Graders of Aesop Elementary School, The Fleming p. 101
26. In what book was a character described as "a tall young man with curly brown hair, forget-me-not blue eyes and an anxious expression" ?
Lily Quench and the Dragon of Ashby Prior p. 3
27. In what book was a character described as being "so sour he looked as if he'd just drunk a glass of vinegar" ?
World According to Humphrey, The Birney p. 103
28. In what book does a character have to write a book report on "Stars and Their Constellations" ?
Kenny and the Dragon DiTerlizzi p. 8
29. In what book did a character say, "It doesn't pay to be at school on time. I got a detention anyway" ?
Nutz Schwartz p. 55
30. In what book does a girl mean no offence to her dad, but believes he is not completely aware of his surroundings?
Invisible Harry, The Jocelyn p. 42
31. In what book did a character say, "Vegetarians are always munching and stashing food to eat later" ?
Nutz Schwartz p. 76
32. In what book does a character's mom go to the American Librarians' Conference?
Invisible Harry, The Jocelyn p. 12
33. In what book do you read this description, "An elderly figure, wearing a low brimmed hat and dressed in dark robes embroidered with strange symbols and stars, leaned on an old pitch fork" ?
Kenny and the Dragon DiTerlizzi p. 124
34. In what book does someone always wave his little straw hat when he is happy?
Pippi Longstocking Lindgren p. 87

35. In what book does a boy say, "I wish I was in kindergarten again, where school was fun and easy"?
- Fabled Fourth Graders of Aesop Elementary School, The Fleming p. 45
36. In what book does a boy have a dalmation and a golden Lab and a sheepdog and two rottweilers?
- Invisible Harry, The Jocelyn p. 77
37. In what book did someone wear a button with the words "This IS my costume"?
- World According to Humphrey, The Birney p. 59
38. In what book does a character warn another to, "...skedaddle. Vamoose. Right now"?
- Lily Quench and the Dragon of Ashby Prior p. 123
39. In what book was a town described as having a "dirty river and filthy streets and the black church with the nailed-up door"?
- Lily Quench and the Dragon of Ashby Prior p. 2
40. In what book does a character tell God that they are lonely?
- Because of Winn-Dixie DiCamillo p. 39
41. In what book do the characters put on a musical presentation?
- Fabled Fourth Graders of Aesop Elementary School, The Fleming p. 32
42. In what book was there a red rubber frog handed to a student to hold?
- Phineas L. MacGuire Erupts! Dowell p. 87
43. In what book does a boy get a little ivory flute as a birthday present?
- Pippi Longstocking Lindgren p. 149
44. In what book is a character "courageous, merry, devoted and obedient" - personality traits such that that no one could ask for anything more?
- Invisible Harry, The Jocelyn p. 58
45. In what book do some ladies talk about their servant problems?
- Pippi Longstocking Lindgren p. 124
46. In what book does it say, "And far away in the distance..came a muffled roar of energy as though some monstrous gigantic machine were spinning its wheels at breakneck speed"?
- Charlie and the Chocolate Factory Dahl p. 66
47. In what book does a character say, "Please don't burn it, I'm borrowing it from a friend of mine"?
- Kenny and the Dragon DiTerlizzi p. 20

48. In what book does a character say, "You can't always judge people by the things they done. You got to judge them by what they are doing now"?
- Because of Winn-Dixie DiCamillo p. 96
49. In what book was a character's voice described as "the most beautiful voice in the world! It was like a gentle breeze, no, like rippling waters"?
- World According to Humphrey, The Birney p. 54
50. In what book does a character hate rats and is threatened to be put, "...in a cell full of the creatures"?
- Lily Quench and the Dragon of Ashby Prior p. 113
51. In what book do we find the following quote, "If you keep on practicing on the comb, you won't notice the tickling"?
- Pippi Longstocking Lindgren p. 114
52. In what book does a character quote, "Chewing gum is known to help children concentrate"?
- Fabled Fourth Graders of Aesop Elementary School, The Fleming p. 7
53. In what book does a character warn, "...make sure it is the right question, for if you waste it, you may not ask another"?
- Lily Quench and the Dragon of Ashby Prior p. 88
54. In what book would you find this quote: "Inside the house, little jets of freezing air came rushing in through the sides of the windows and under the doors, and there was no place to escape them"?
- Charlie and the Chocolate Factory Dahl p. 43
55. In what book does a character throw, "...a tantrum that lasted for the best part of half an hour"?
- Lily Quench and the Dragon of Ashby Prior p. 97
56. In what book did a character say, "It happens too often to be an accident. They are trying to kills"?
- Hunter Walters p. 79
57. In what book is there a loft that used to be a factory and is now an apartment with no real walls and no privacy?
- Invisible Harry, The Jocelyn p. 100
58. In what book does a character explain, "Today I received my official orders for one final task, and it is a most honorable task"?
- Kenny and the Dragon DiTerlizzi p. 64

59. In what book did a character "worry all day Monday, all day Tuesday and worry even more all day Wednesday"?
- World According to Humphrey, The Birney p. 100
60. In what book do you read, "It did look pretty. It looked so pretty it made my heart feel funny, all swollen and full"?
- Because of Winn-Dixie DiCamillo p. 145
61. In what book is the quote, "I waited so long to get my hands on those jelly beans, and now...Now I'll never get them"?
- Fabled Fourth Graders of Aesop Elementary School, The Fleming p. 128
62. In what book did the art supply closet at school get haunted?
- Phineas L. MacGuire Erupts! Dowell p. 118
63. In what book did a character say, "Everybody knows babies need to be filled with baby bottles"?
- Nutz Schwartz p. 34
64. In what book does the main character set to howling, like a pack of huskies dragging a sled across the tundra?
- Invisible Harry, The Jocelyn p. 107
65. In what book is does a tall, dark man wearing a pith helmet and clutching a copy of the morning's want ads apply for a job?
- Fabled Fourth Graders of Aesop Elementary School, The Fleming p. 3
66. In what book does it say, "Everyone has a chance to win a pizza"?
- Fabled Fourth Graders of Aesop Elementary School, The Fleming p. 86
67. In what book did a character like to stare at the bamboo stems dancing in the breeze?
- Nutz Schwartz p. 150
68. In what book was there this quote, "There is a very interesting black mold that grows in tomato paste for example"?
- Phineas L. MacGuire Erupts! Dowell p. 50
69. In what book does a character question, "Why do we have to go rushing on past all these lovely rooms?"?
- Charlie and the Chocolate Factory Dahl p. 112

70. In what book do you read this quote "I would love to shoo, but it is obvious that I cannot"?
- Miraculous Journey of Edward Tulane, The DiCamillo p. 182
71. In what book did a character say, "At least dogs always smelled like dogs"?
- Hunter Walters p. 14
72. In what book is a 'tiny strip of gum... a whole three-course dinner all by itself'?
- Charlie and the Chocolate Factory Dahl p. 100
73. In what book did a character say, "For another thing, I'll beat you at the fourth-grade science fair in two weeks"?
- Phineas L. MacGuire Erupts! Dowell p. 19
74. In what book was a dog drenched in paint and "slipping and sliding over the pavement"?
- Nutz Schwartz p. 97
75. In what book was a character so fat that he "looked as though he had been blown up with a powerful pump"?
- Charlie and the Chocolate Factory Dahl p. 27
76. In what book does a character declare to a crowd, "Fear not, for you will all be safe and sound. You have my word"?
- Kenny and the Dragon DiTerlizzi p. 86
77. In what book does a man give his credentials for job using his former position as an assistant dog groomer aboard King Bernard's yacht, the SS Pooch?
- Fabled Fourth Graders of Aesop Elementary School, The Fleming p. 3
78. In what book did a character learn to hunt from his/her mother"?
- Hunter Walters p. 52
79. In what book was it torture for a character to watch others eat cream candy bars?
- Charlie and the Chocolate Factory Dahl p. 8
80. In what book is there a character who wanted "to win the world record for the longest dried earthworm ever recorded"?
- Phineas L. MacGuire Erupts! Dowell p. 12
81. In what book does a character after crying and blowing her nose, "happen to glance out the window and see a strange procession marching down the street"?
- Lily Quench and the Dragon of Ashby Prior p. 11

82. In what book does an entire crowd shout "Encore!"?
Kenny and the Dragon DiTerlizzi p. 142
83. In what book did a character observe "big splotches of blood all over my desk"?
Phineas L. MacGuire Erupts! Dowell p. 115
84. In what book was a basement filled with "piles of sawdust, cobwebs and spiders"?
Nutz Schwartz p. 95
85. In what book is the quote, "Raise your hand if you're not here"?
Fabled Fourth Graders of Aesop Elementary School, The Fleming p. 13
86. In what book does a character explain, "There is always a pecking order, you find out who the leader is, spook him into goin' where you want. "?
Kenny and the Dragon DiTerlizzi p. 114
87. In what book do we find a character who lives in an old house which is in an old overgrown garden?
Pippi Longstocking Lindgren p. 11
88. In what book do you read this description "she was looking at him in the way a hawk hanging lazily in the air might study a mouse on the ground"?
Miraculous Journey of Edward Tulane, The DiCamillo p. 24
89. In what book did one character describe another as "a mass of bouncy black curls. A big, happy smile. Huge dark eyes. She smelled of apples. It was love at first sight"?
World According to Humphrey, The Birney p. 3
90. In what book did a character remark, "There's one channel that has the most frightening shows about wild animals attacking one another"?
World According to Humphrey, The Birney p. 85
91. In what book did a character use his/her nose "to search for danger"?
Hunter Walters p. 3
92. In what book did a character say, "I hate to leave you in the dark. But if I don't turn off the lights, I could lose my job"?
World According to Humphrey, The Birney p. 16
93. In what book is the advice offered, "Prick her with a pin!"
Charlie and the Chocolate Factory Dahl p. 105
94. In what book did a character yell, "There is room for all of us in this house"?
Nutz Schwartz p. 108

95. In what book does a character get called, "Lunch Meat"?
Because of Winn-Dixie DiCamillo p. 64
96. In what book does a character announce "fresh catch, fresh rabbit from the sea"?
Miraculous Journey of Edward Tulane, The DiCamillo p. 62
97. In what book does a character keep saying, "Pffft!"?
Fabled Fourth Graders of Aesop Elementary School, The Fleming p. 77
98. In what book do you read "You dirty bum, I'm sick of you guys sleeping everywhere, this ain't no motel"?
Miraculous Journey of Edward Tulane, The DiCamillo p. 104
99. In what book do you read, "Every time I caught something, I put it back in the first cage I saw; I didn't care if it was the right cage or not"?
Because of Winn-Dixie DiCamillo p. 81
100. In what book does a character exclaim, "Look at this sheen! It really brings out the iridescence in my complexion"?
Kenny and the Dragon DiTerlizzi p. 73
101. In what book does a character say, "Used to be I played on the streets and sometimes people gave me money. I didn't do it for the money"?
Because of Winn-Dixie DiCamillo p. 130
102. In what book is there a trunk that contains "one fireproof cape"- "one high powered catapult"- and "one winged helmet"?
Lily Quench and the Dragon of Ashby Prior p. 16
103. In what book do you read, "there was always one kid foolish enough to tangle with Big Bad Bunz"?
Fabled Fourth Graders of Aesop Elementary School, The Fleming p. 57
104. In what book does a character learn to play 'Chopsticks' on the piano?
Kenny and the Dragon DiTerlizzi p. 41
105. In what book was show and tell called, "Share and Stare"?
Phineas L. MacGuire Erupts! Dowell p. 25
106. In what book is there a little nine year old girl who lives alone?
Pippi Longstocking Lindgren p. 11

107. In what book would you find this description: " It was a very beautiful thing..having been made, so it seemed, from a sheet of pure gold hammered out almost to the thinness of the paper"?
- Charlie and the Chocolate Factory Dahl p. 55
108. In what book does a character not feel great and goes to the nurse's office to lie down for a few minutes?
- Invisible Harry, The Jocelyn p. 71
109. In what book does a character announce, "There's a parade in town! We just got word"?
- Kenny and the Dragon DiTerlizzi p. 77
110. In what book did a character make a noise, "like something being sucked down a vacuum cleaner"?
- Nutz Schwartz p. 12
111. In what book do we find a main character who preferred caramel candy to cod liver oil?
- Pippi Longstocking Lindgren p. 11
112. In what book do you read, "the mice stayed around to eat all the leftover crumbs"?
- Because of Winn-Dixie DiCamillo p. 35
113. In what book did a character think, "The little ones are afraid of the big ones, the young are afraid of the old, and the weak are afraid of the strong"?
- Hunter Walters p. 56
114. In what book does a little girl offer a teacher a gold watch and if she didn't take it she threatened to come back the next day?
- Pippi Longstocking Lindgren p. 59
115. In what book was a character described as having feet that smelled like a "thousand barrels of raw garlic"?
- Nutz Schwartz p. 22
116. In what book did a character say, "Well if that's what dogs are like, then maybe we should try to be more doglike"?
- Hunter Walters p. 54
117. In what book do headlines cause great excitement?
- Charlie and the Chocolate Factory Dahl p. 23

118. In what book is there a character "with stick-out brown hair and freckles"?
Phineas L. MacGuire Erupts! Dowell p. 11
119. In what book do you read, "She opened the top draw of her desk. It was full of candy. She opened the draw below that. It was full of candy, too"?
Because of Winn-Dixie DiCamillo p. 112
120. In what book did a character say, "This is my room. I'm supposed to clean it before I watch any TV, but I haven't gotten around to it yet"?
Phineas L. MacGuire Erupts! Dowell p. 62
121. In what book does a character state, "I'd just as soon burn my own tail as burn a book"?
Kenny and the Dragon DiTerlizzi p. 20
122. In what book did a character say, "But I was good and tired and I knew I could rest up from my weekend during recess"?
World According to Humphrey, The Birney p. 113
123. In what book do you read "he stared at the stars all night until the dark finally gave way to dawn"?
Miraculous Journey of Edward Tulane, The DiCamillo p. 11
124. In what book does a Mrs. Berggren say that Rosa, her servant, is a "regular pig"?
Pippi Longstocking Lindgren p. 125
125. In what book did a character say, "I knew they wouldn't have harmed us"?
Hunter Walters p. 16
126. In what book does a character exclaim, "They'll be selling him by the pound all over the country tomorrow morning!"
Charlie and the Chocolate Factory Dahl p. 80
127. In what book does the main character think "Look at me. You got your wish. I have learned how to love"?
Miraculous Journey of Edward Tulane, The DiCamillo p. 149
128. In what book does a character threaten, "It's a fine thing to be brave yourself, but let's see what you think when it's someone else's pain you're watching"?
Lily Quench and the Dragon of Ashby Prior p. 117
129. In what book is there a character with great strength? As a matter of fact, it was the most remarkable thing about this character.
Pippi Longstocking Lindgren p. 13

130. In what book did a character say, "And I am the luckiest man in the world! Because I am dating the most beautiful woman in the world"?
World According to Humphrey, The Birney p. 81
131. In what book was a character described as "She wore dark clothes and flat shoes and she didn't jingle-jangle at all"?
World According to Humphrey, The Birney p. 9
132. In what book did a character say, "I'll tell mom about it later. She's going to be in for a big surprise, isn't she"?
Nutz Schwartz p. 16
133. In what book did a character ask, "Is there anybody here who questions my bravery?"
Hunter Walters p. 145
134. In what book did two characters have this exchange of words: "We don't have to be afraid of him," and "Yes, I know. He's going to go now"?
Hunter Walters p. 78
135. In what book do you find "a wait-and-see tree"?
Because of Winn-Dixie DiCamillo p. 69
136. In what book does the main character get new clothes including a pink dress, a simple shift, and a long white gown to sleep in?
Miraculous Journey of Edward Tulane, The DiCamillo p. 67
137. In what book does a character explain "two options only, and your friend chose option two, he gave you up so that you could be healed"?
Miraculous Journey of Edward Tulane, The DiCamillo p. 170
138. In what book does the main character wear shoes that are much too big?
Pippi Longstocking Lindgren p. 24
139. In what book do you read, "You could tell he wanted to get face to face with the manager and thank him for the good time he was having in the produce department"?
Because of Winn-Dixie DiCamillo p. 9
140. In what book does a character say, "That witch might cook us up in her big old witch's pot"?
Because of Winn-Dixie DiCamillo p. 140
141. In what book a girl say, "When a horse jumps over defense, defeat go before detail"?
Fabled Fourth Graders of Aesop Elementary School, The Fleming p. 68

142. In what book does someone say, "Boys, let Willie alone and take a look at this girl. What a babe!"
Pippi Longstocking Lindgren p. 32
143. In what book does a character eat, "a piping hot potatoe cake and a bowl of raspberries and cream"?
Lily Quench and the Dragon of Ashby Prior p. 84
144. In what book does a character state, "I aim to find out just who he is, where he came from, and what his intentions are,"?
Kenny and the Dragon DiTerlizzi p. 13
145. In what book did a character say, "I wouldn't want to survive out here without you"?
Hunter Walters p. 17
146. In what book were children digging through the trash looking for teeth marks and evidence of a nest?
Phineas L. MacGuire Erupts! Dowell p. 133
147. In what book did a character recall a story. "It was about a scary house and these scratching noises and a ghost. The story had a funny ending because it turned out the ghost wasn't a ghost at all. It was an owl"?
World According to Humphrey, The Birney p. 10
148. In what book did a character think, "Sometimes you just have to get away from the house. Be in your own world. Think your own thoughts"?
Nutz Schwartz p. 149
149. In what book does the main character think, " Right now, a pair of seven-league boots would have been the thing anyone could have given her"?
Lily Quench and the Dragon of Ashby Prior p. 17
150. In what book did a character describe a dog as being "a big mass of yellow fur"?
World According to Humphrey, The Birney p. 67
151. In what book could a character make marshmallows that tastes like violets?
Charlie and the Chocolate Factory Dahl p. 14
152. In what book does the main character "read all sorts of subjects: science, mysteries, histories, and even fairy tales"?
Kenny and the Dragon DiTerlizzi p. 0

153. In what book does it say, "she grabbed her spear and the golden rope and jumped behind the nearest rock"?
- Lily Quench and the Dragon of Ashby Prior p. 25
154. In what book is a friend such a worrywart, he could be a grandfather already?
- Invisible Harry, The Jocelyn p. 54
155. In what book does a parent fret that, "She'll...she'll be sizzled like a sausage"?
- Charlie and the Chocolate Factory Dahl p. 121
156. In what book does the main character wonder "would the world never tire of calling him by the wrong name"?
- Miraculous Journey of Edward Tulane, The DiCamillo p. 111
157. In what book does a character experience crows flying at him, cawing and screeching, wheeling and diving?
- Miraculous Journey of Edward Tulane, The DiCamillo p. 111
158. In what book do you read, "Outside, the rain had stopped and the clouds had gone away and the sky was so clear it seemed I could see every star ever made"?
- Because of Winn-Dixie DiCamillo p. 177
159. In what book was it explained, "they had to live in tree-houses to escape from the whangdoodles and the horn swogglers and the snozzwangers"?
- Charlie and the Chocolate Factory Dahl p. 73
160. In what book does a character gasp, "But you're dead!"?
- Lily Quench and the Dragon of Ashby Prior p. 82
161. In what book does a character say, "Put these on quick! And don't take them off in here whatever you do! This light could blind you!"
- Charlie and the Chocolate Factory Dahl p. 132
162. In what book does a character state, "Ho there, we've got some company. Mayhaps a fellow poet"?
- Kenny and the Dragon DiTerlizzi p. 103
163. In what book do you read, "She could stick a tire in the ground and grow a car"?
- Because of Winn-Dixie DiCamillo p. 26
164. In what book does a character holler, "Pack all yer things! We're outta here! We're moving!"?
- Kenny and the Dragon DiTerlizzi p. 1

165. In what book does a character think about her mother "extra, extra hard"?
Because of Winn-Dixie DiCamillo p. 23
166. In what book does a character say, "well, now. Don't you look handsome"?
Because of Winn-Dixie DiCamillo p. 24
167. In what book did a child do an experiment and videotaped the hives coming out on his arms?
Phineas L. MacGuire Erupts! Dowell p. 100
168. In what book is the quote, "I'm going to get teased, and if I'm teased, I'll end up pounding someone and if I pound someone, I'll end up in the office for who knows how long"?
Fabled Fourth Graders of Aesop Elementary School, The Fleming p. 74
169. In what book did a character say, "I'm named after my great-great-uncle. He was an inventor and played baseball"?
Phineas L. MacGuire Erupts! Dowell p. 66
170. In what book does it state, "All she had to do was quench its fires and plunge her boar spear into its eye"?
Lily Quench and the Dragon of Ashby Prior p. 19
171. In what book does a character remember the last time he had to do something and must have chewed about twelve packs of gum in one day?
Invisible Harry, The Jocelyn p. 86
172. In what book does a character talk about an old lady by saying, "that old fright? I've always thought she was mad"?
Lily Quench and the Dragon of Ashby Prior p. 8
173. In what book did a character know, "the nooks and crannies that provided shelter, safety and secrecy"?
Hunter Walters p. 48
174. In what book does a character order "give me some pancakes, and some eggs, and I want steak too. I want a big old steak, and some toast and some coffee"?
Miraculous Journey of Edward Tulane, The DiCamillo p. 154
175. In what book does someone say, "I have a feeling you needed a break like this. I'm awfully glad you got it"?
Charlie and the Chocolate Factory Dahl p. 52

176. In what book does a character state "you may look and then you must go and not come back, I cannot have you in my shop every day mooning over what you have lost"?
Miraculous Journey of Edward Tulane, The DiCamillo p. 176
177. In what book do we find an illustration of someone laying on the floor, drawing a picture?
Pippi Longstocking Lindgren p. 57
178. In what book did a character have "clouds of dim sum" steaming above his/her head"?
Nutz Schwartz p. 10
179. In what book does the main character crouch down beside the shelf with domestic animal books, Dewey decimal number 636?
Invisible Harry, The Jocelyn p. 57
180. In what book is there a very challenging group of students?
Fabled Fourth Graders of Aesop Elementary School, The Fleming p. 1
181. In what book does a character explain "the best chef in the world would be hard-pressed to make him into a pie"?
Miraculous Journey of Edward Tulane, The DiCamillo p. 89
182. In what book does a character say, "I was just playing them some music. It makes them happy"?
Because of Winn-Dixie DiCamillo p. 82
183. In what book does a character say, "Did I get here in time for pluttifikation"?
Pippi Longstocking Lindgren p. 51
184. In what book does a teacher advise that a spy should be certain of her information before jeopardizing her reputation?
Invisible Harry, The Jocelyn p. 52
185. In what book does it say, would you find this quote: "you could hear the never-ending suck-suck-sucking sound of the pipes as they did the work"?
Charlie and the Chocolate Factory Dahl p. 70
186. In what book would you find mention of several ancient oaks and elms growing in a garden that were excellent for climbing?
Pippi Longstocking Lindgren p. 68
187. In what book does a character get the hiccups when nervous?
Kenny and the Dragon DiTerlizzi p. 34

188. In what book did a character think, "Well I knew I couldn't convince my mom, but sometimes my stepdad could be reasoned with"?
- Phineas L. MacGuire Erupts! Dowell p. 51
189. In what book did a character think, "Humans didn't seem to like darkness"?
- Hunter Walters p. 55
190. In what book did a character have a mother who was "very big into decluttering"?
- Phineas L. MacGuire Erupts! Dowell p. 74
191. In what book, after countless experiments with layers of reflective substances, does the character develop a formula for solar popcorn?
- Invisible Harry, The Jocelyn p. 28
192. In what book do you find this description, "She was dressed in a long black gown, a jet tiara, and a smoke-coloured veil"?
- Lily Quench and the Dragon of Ashby Prior p. 129

1. In what book do you read this description, it was a "strange sense of relief - the terrified relief a soldier might feel when the waiting is over and the battle has finally begun"?
Swindle Korman p. 222
2. In what book does a farmer say, "Those people in them fancy new homes won't be able to stand pig smell. So we can't raise hogs no more"?
Among the Hidden Haddix p. 25
3. In what book was there a "terrible shriek and the night splattered with blood"?
Capture, The Lasky p. 162
4. In what book is a character struck by lightning?
Noses Are Red Scrimger p. 115
5. In what book is branching a part of the growing process?
Capture, The Lasky p. 9
6. In what book does a character roar with pain and raise his hand as "...a charred, black smear was added to the other ugly features on his grizzled face"?
Sisters Grimm Book 1 Buckley p. 242
7. In what book do we learn that the main character "belonged at home. Home, where the backyard always beckoned, always safe and protected by the house and the barn and the woods. Until they took the woods away"?
Among the Hidden Haddix p. 11
8. In what book are the characters warned about the dangers of magic, and are told that, "...Magic in the wrong hands only leads to chaos"?
Sisters Grimm Book 1 Buckley p. 205
9. In what book did the parents believe that dinners were family gatherings and were served in front of the TV?
Matilda Dahl p. 28
10. In what book do characters watch a cute little thing, with a look of concentration similar to a kindergarten child tying shoes?
Noses Are Red Scrimger p. 58
11. In what book are cabins named after animals such as Chipmunk, Raven and Weasel?
Noses Are Red Scrimger p. 145

12. In what book does a character say, "Forget that hiding-like-a-mole stuff. I'm your ticket out"?
- Among the Hidden Haddix p. 63
13. In what book does a character think, "it wasn't so different from looking through the bedroom window at the city street. Everything was there, in proportion; all he had to do was transfer it to the page"?
- Masterpiece Broach p. 90
14. In what book does someone pity "the men inside the tunnel. All day long, breathing in loose dirt, their eyes stinging from the fumes of blasting powder"?
- White Jade Tiger Lawson p. 125
15. In what book does a family live in a home that is the "perfect location. It was warm, because of the hot water pipes embedded in the walls; moist to make burrowing easy; and dark and musty, like all the other homes the family had lived in?"
- Masterpiece Broach p. 1
16. In what book are the characters forewarned to "be polite...No sass, no backtalk, stand up straight...or so help me I'll---"?
- Sisters Grimm Book 1 Buckley p. 7
17. In what book does a character long to feel like a kid again and not have to worry about being safe?
- Sisters Grimm Book 1 Buckley p. 105
18. In what book does a character ask, "but do you know how powerful secrets are and to what lengths we will go just to protect them?"
- Kendra Kandlestar and the Box of Whispers Fodi p. 188
19. In what book would a crazy guy shake his fist at the sky and yell "crazy stuff like 'What's the burn scale? Where's the dome?' and then he threw his head back and laughed these loud, crazy laughs, so everyone could see that he had about thirty fillings in his teeth"?
- When You Reach Me Stead p. 16
20. In what book did a character use "a fat green marker, also swiped from work, to draw a pyramid on April 27, with dollar signs and exclamation points all around it"?
- When You Reach Me Stead p. 3
21. In what book did one character have difficulty convincing another character of the worthiness and capabilities of one particular child?
- Matilda Dahl p. 87

22. In what book does the father enjoy doing crossword puzzles in the Sunday Times?
Harry's Mad King-Smith p. 27
23. In what book does a character describe something as "a sheet of energy suspended in air."
Kendra Kandlestar and the Box of Whispers Fodi p. 64
24. In what book does a 13-year-old plan to drive her parents' car to a rally in front of the president's house?
Among the Hidden Haddix p. 109
25. In what book does a character have "bigger plans than selling shoes and measuring hemlines..." and instead is looking forward to "capturing my rightful place in the spotlight"?
Sisters Grimm Book 1 Buckley p. 266
26. In what book was a blind animal used as a nest-maid?
Capture, The Lasky p. 3
27. In what book does the bird who is not eating anything have a very good reason for not eating?
Harry's Mad King-Smith p. 122
28. In what book did the main character discover that being able to read was a true source of enjoyment?
Matilda Dahl p. 13
29. In what book does a character state: "...now that we've got the shoes, we need the proper disguises"?
Sisters Grimm Book 1 Buckley p. 208
30. In what book does a character have "seven braids in all reaching out from her small head like rays of a star."
Kendra Kandlestar and the Box of Whispers Fodi p. 2
31. In what book does the father drive a five year old Ford?
Harry's Mad King-Smith p. 9
32. In what book does a character scold his niece "how many times have I told you to not borrow my books without asking?"
Kendra Kandlestar and the Box of Whispers Fodi p. 6
33. In what book are there orphans?
Capture, The Lasky p. 31

34. In what book does a character say, "I am ashamed of many things in my life, but my niece is not one of them. Indeed if anything, I am proud of her."
Kendra Kandlestar and the Box of Whispers Fodi p. 219
35. In what book does the main character sometimes picture the Government as "a very big, mean, fat person, two or three times as tall as an ordinary man"?
Among the Hidden Haddix p. 2
36. In what book does a character think, "I was so enraged that consequences didn't matter to me now" ?
Kensuke's Kingdom Morpurgo p. 96
37. In what book was a crazy guy "always on our corner, sometimes sleeping with his head under the mailbox"?
When You Reach Me Stead p. 16
38. In what book does a character scold two friends, "you are a pair of pestering twerps, you know that? Why would I tell you anything?"
Kendra Kandlestar and the Box of Whispers Fodi p. 71
39. In what book did the father in the story put ads in the newspapers offering a reward for the return of a valuable item that was missing?
Harry's Mad King-Smith p. 80
40. In what book does this description appear, "Outside the tunnel, more rock had been drilled and blasted, then broken into fragments to fill up the roadbed"?
White Jade Tiger Lawson p. 124
41. In what book did one of the characters live in a dwelling that was very, very bare?
Matilda Dahl p. 190
42. In what book did the boys play kickball or football or speed in the backyard before the woods came down?
Among the Hidden Haddix p. 34
43. In what book is a character grabbed by the wrist and flipped head over heels to land hard on his back for touching someone without asking?
Noses Are Red Scrimger p. 105
44. In what book does a character want to sell another character for a lot of money?
Harry's Mad King-Smith p. 70

45. In what book is there a "small array of polished battle claws hanging from one wall"?
- Capture, The Lasky p. 160
46. In what book does it state, "Light and dark, yin and yang. Perfect harmony"?
- White Jade Tiger Lawson p. 101
47. In what book does a character exclaim, "Wait, wait. We did not accept this tax. Instead of paying it, we organized a strike"?
- White Jade Tiger Lawson p. 76
48. In what book did a character say "So? It doesn't matter when you leave. It's just whether or not you get there that matters. Wait, I take that back. It does matter when you leave. Because if you don't leave for fifty years, even if you were there the ticket guy probably won't recognize you"?
- When You Reach Me Stead p. 101
49. In what book does it state that a character who is lost is difficult to find among thousands upon thousands of short-legged gray birds?
- Harry's Mad King-Smith p. 108
50. In what book was one of the characters dominated by such a tyrant that she wouldn't dare run away?
- Matilda Dahl p. 200
51. In what book does a character observe, "So far as I could see there was no sign of any human life"?
- Kensuke's Kingdom Morpurgo p. 53
52. In what book is a character simply aghast when he heard parents talking about egg snatching?
- Capture, The Lasky p. 107
53. In what book does a "little bald bowling ball of a guy" not look like a pilot?
- Noses Are Red Scrimger p. 13
54. In what book does a character encounter, "No brakes, no horns, no whish of tires. And no people. No footsteps, no voices"?
- White Jade Tiger Lawson p. 56
55. In what book did most of the children appear to be more intelligent and more sensitive than the adults?
- Matilda Dahl p. 100

56. In what book does a character state, "I tried to swim away but it came after me, hunting me" ?
Kensuke's Kingdom Morpurgo p. 97
57. In what book does a character figure "out that tonight is the third night of full shine" ?
Capture, The Lasky p. 78
58. In what book does a robbery change the course of events dramatically?
Harry's Mad King-Smith p. 66
59. In what book does a step on a pebbly beach signal the end of the first portage?
Noses Are Red Scrimger p. 23
60. In what book is a character a star in one of Shakespeare's famous plays?
Sisters Grimm Book 1 Buckley p. 127
61. In what book does a mother show off two loaves of bread by setting them out on special china?
Among the Hidden Haddix p. 45
62. In what book does a character exclaim "humph! Who's in such a hurry that he can't mind where he is going?"
Kendra Kandlestar and the Box of Whispers Fodi p. 10
63. In what book does it state that the worst thing you could do would be to eat an egg in front of one of the characters?
Harry's Mad King-Smith p. 38
64. In what book is a character told that " 'Latchkey child' is a name for a kid with keys who hangs out alone after school until a grown-up gets home to make dinner" ?
When You Reach Me Stead p. 3
65. In what book does a character shiver and state: "whatever it was, it made an enormous hole on the lawn" ?
Kendra Kandlestar and the Box of Whispers Fodi p. 10
66. In what book does a character hurry home for "he'd been gone all night. His parents would have no idea what had happened to him" ?
Masterpiece Broach p. 40
67. In what book does a riot break out at the end of a game?
Noses Are Red Scrimger p. 196

68. In what book does a character think, "It didn't help to think that way...just like it didn't help to think about the dark water in the drain, or what might be floating there when you were about to dive in"?
- Masterpiece Broach p. 90
69. In what book do two characters narrowly escape a wrecking ball?
- Swindle Korman p. 19
70. In what book do the characters meet secretly in a storage area next to the school gym?
- Swindle Korman p. 120
71. In what book does a character provide the wrong directions and wrong address on purpose?
- Swindle Korman p. 152
72. In what book was there a chapter titled 'Mom's Rules for Life in New York City'?
- When You Reach Me Stead p. 25
73. In what book do we find this quote: "Rescuing old ladies is a job for a hero! I'm a villain of the worst kind"?
- Sisters Grimm Book 1 Buckley p. 126
74. In what book a boy think of his family as "a great team"?
- Kensuke's Kingdom Morpurgo p. 15
75. In what book do we read of a cloud of dust that grew and made a noise as it grew?
- Noses Are Red Scrimger p. 31
76. In what book does a character explain "I could have gotten up there myself and rigged something for the rest of you guys, but not now"?
- Swindle Korman p. 167
77. In what book did a character ask, "So what's your story kid?"
- Capture, The Lasky p. 170
78. In what book do you read this quote "it would have been great, though. A million bucks. Hundreds of thousands anyway"?
- Swindle Korman p. 246
79. In what book is a character glad to be floating down a river feet first?
- Noses Are Red Scrimger p. 82

80. In what book does a character recall, "The agony was immediate and excruciating. It permeated my entire body like one continuous electric shock"?
- Kensuke's Kingdom Morpurgo p. 97
81. In what book did a character realize "Holding that book in my hands, I finally believed that whoever wrote me those notes actually knew about things before they happened. Somehow"?
- When You Reach Me Stead p. 135
82. In what book is the description "perfectly moon-blinked" found?
- Capture, The Lasky p. 106
83. In what book do you read, "The howling became a screaming, a fearful crescendo of screeching that died away in its own echoes"?
- Kensuke's Kingdom Morpurgo p. 49
84. In what book does a character state: "I never crave adventure. In my experience, adventure can mean only one thing: danger!"
- Kendra Kandlestar and the Box of Whispers Fodi p. 11
85. In what book is the main character described as rather extraordinary but she/he is not particularly aware of it?
- Matilda Dahl p. 10
86. In what book does a character state, "I loved the sound of the word 'funky'"?
- Kensuke's Kingdom Morpurgo p. 51
87. In what book does a girl angrily declare, "No, I won't love it! Don't you dare take off to the other side of the world and tell me I'll love it. I'll hate it! And I hate you!"
- White Jade Tiger Lawson p. 31
88. In what book do we learn the ingredients in "charbroiled pancakes" or bannock?
- Noses Are Red Scrimger p. 103
89. In what book does a mother get a daughter a forged shopping pass?
- Among the Hidden Haddix p. 77
90. In what book do we read this passage: "He looked me hard in the eye, leaving me in no doubt that this was not meant as advice, this was a command that I should obey"?
- Kensuke's Kingdom Morpurgo p. 91
91. In what book did a talking parrot cause quite a commotion in a home?
- Matilda Dahl p. 48

92. In what book does a character say, "Yes, but it was in a series of public places- a hotel, a church, an office building. The tracking device isn't precise enough to pinpoint rooms"?
- Masterpiece Broach p. 224
93. In what book does a garbage man revive one of the characters who is very near death?
- Harry's Mad King-Smith p. 88
94. In what book is this quote: "Just tell it the location of where you want to go and it'll get you there. Even if you don't know how to get there yourself"?
- Sisters Grimm Book 1 Buckley p. 160
95. In what book do two brothers play the "Population Police" joke for years?
- Among the Hidden Haddix p. 14
96. In what book is there an "inventorium"?
- Capture, The Lasky p. 152
97. In what book does a character say, "why we have maps, books and journals of the ancient explorers [in the library]. We cannot possibly commence this journey without them"?
- Kendra Kandlestar and the Box of Whispers Fodi p. 44
98. In what book does the main character get dizzy watching all the activity of bulldozers and shovel contraptions?
- Among the Hidden Haddix p. 17
99. In what book did it take great courage for a character to go to a neighbour's house?
- Among the Hidden Haddix p. 55
100. In what book does a character describe his pet this way, "She always looked so serious when she swam, chin up and paddling purposefully"?
- Kensuke's Kingdom Morpurgo p. 63
101. In what book do the Chinese people experience prejudice?
- White Jade Tiger Lawson p. 89
102. In what book does a character say, "humph, this has been enough excitement for one day. Everyone to bed!"
- Kendra Kandlestar and the Box of Whispers Fodi p. 132
103. In what book does a character hack into someone's computer and email system?
- Swindle Korman p. 139

104. In what book had character who worked "during lunch for the rest of that week. We washed a lot of greasy plastic trays, weighed piles of sliced meat, stacked up sodas in the refrigerated case, cut tomatoes, and did whatever else" they were told to do?
When You Reach Me Stead p. 55
105. In what book did the main character's mom want "to be a criminal defense lawyer -- she started law school and almost finished her first year, but then I was born and she had to quit"?
When You Reach Me Stead p. 0
106. In what book does a character think to herself that "her uncle's beard slowed her uncle down"?
Kendra Kandlestar and the Box of Whispers Fodi p. 5
107. In what book does a character say, "they're afraid of their own shadows. I imagine that big, dark shape was enough to send most hiding under their beds"?
Kendra Kandlestar and the Box of Whispers Fodi p. 20
108. In what book do characters follow the tradition when arriving home of exclaiming, "We're home!"
Sisters Grimm Book 1 Buckley p. 188
109. In what book does a pet like to eat "delicious, squidgy, nutty chocolate bars"?
Harry's Mad King-Smith p. 51
110. In what book does the food sound "normal enough: pork chops and steaks, mashed potatoes and strawberries and chocolate cake - but it was all in foil packages"?
Noses Are Red Scrimger p. 15
111. In what book does a character, if she's afraid of someone on the street, turn to him and say, "Excuse me, do you happen to know what time it is?"
When You Reach Me Stead p. 25
112. In what book does the main character write a proposal for the development of a skateboard park?
Swindle Korman p. 252
113. In what book did one of the characters pose as an answering service for his household?
Harry's Mad King-Smith p. 56
114. In what book does one particular character frighten everyone and anyone who comes in contact with her?
Matilda Dahl p. 116

115. In what book do campers battle through a game of Red Rover?
Noses Are Red Scrimger p. 162
116. In what book are there "windless canyons and ravines"?
Capture, The Lasky p. 163
117. In what book does a character yell "Hey, somebody's got to help me with my ladder"?
Swindle Korman p. 205
118. In what book does the main character create a plan involving a fake sleepover idea?
Swindle Korman p. 4
119. In what book was a character stunned while watching writing appear on the blackboard?
Matilda Dahl p. 222
120. In what book does a character crash while jumping down a set of stairs?
Harry's Mad King-Smith p. 3
121. In what book does a character explain "we have to bring out the playful side, which has been suppressed for so long, the imagination, the whimsy, the fun"?
Swindle Korman p. 68
122. In what book do characters research security systems using resources in their school library?
Swindle Korman p. 106
123. In what book does one of the characters turn on the TV to watch the news every night?
Harry's Mad King-Smith p. 48
124. In what book will you find this quote, "It was the smell that roused her, the stink of rotting garbage and raw sewage. And something else, a sweet, cloying smell like boiled potatoes"?
White Jade Tiger Lawson p. 58
125. In what book does a character say, "you've had us worried out of our shells! Why didn't you come home yesterday? You got me in a lot of trouble with your mother, I hope you realize, for ever allowing you to stay behind"?
Masterpiece Broach p. 115
126. In what book is the main character threatened by a man with a gun?
Among the Hidden Haddix p. 125

127. In what book does a character think, "the easiest thing would be to crawl onto the rock and pull her out when she floated close enough. But, there wasn't time"?
- Masterpiece Broach p. 133
128. In what book does a character say: "It's about time this little burg saw some action"?
- Sisters Grimm Book 1 Buckley p. 184
129. In what book did a character realize "That's why you stood on our corner day after day. That's why you were always doing those kicks into the street -- you were practicing"?
- When You Reach Me Stead p. 164
130. In what book is a character complimented for having "...incredible skills of deduction. You looked at the clues and chose the most likely path to solve the crime. You're going to make a great detective"?
- Sisters Grimm Book 1 Buckley p. 84
131. In what book does a character notice, "The forest was alive with creatures. Birds cackled and screeched high above me, and always the howling wailed and wafted through the trees, but more distantly now"?
- Kensuke's Kingdom Morpurgo p. 0
132. In what book does a character "look around in amazement. The nondescript door opened into a large study lined with bookshelves. There were doors and hallways opening off it, all hidden behind one wall of the gallery"?
- Masterpiece Broach p. 70
133. In what book did one of the characters fly from New York to London's Heathrow Airport?
- Harry's Mad King-Smith p. 13
134. In what book does a character say, "Well, Justice for example. It's a universal ideal. Civilizations depend on it. Wars are fought over it and people die for it - or the lack of it"?
- Masterpiece Broach p. 152
135. In what book do friends carry a carousel of chips from basement to basement all summer?
- Noses Are Red Scrimger p. 5

136. In what book is this description: "a cloud of little lights zipped out of the forest...the lights didn't attack. Instead they hovered as if wanting instructions?"
Sisters Grimm Book 1 Buckley p. 117
137. In what book is a character known to complain when she has to touch a child's "sticky hands or wipe their runny noses," and reading bedtime stories "was completely out of the question"?
Sisters Grimm Book 1 Buckley p. 3
138. In what book is one of the main character's father "an artist, the maker of large abstract paintings"?
Masterpiece Broach p. 17
139. In what book does a character take a deep breath and say in awe, "such a glorious aroma of knowledge."
Kendra Kandlestar and the Box of Whispers Fodi p. 48
140. In what book did a character realize "You saved Sal's life. You were the laughing man. You were the heap of something awful. You are dead"?
When You Reach Me Stead p. 162
141. In what book do two characters eat the same way "like hungry pigs, scarfing down anything that came close to their mouths"?
Sisters Grimm Book 1 Buckley p. 132
142. In what book does this quotation come from, "To the human eye the barrel would have seemed gigantic, but to her, it was simply enormous--an alien, oversized object from a world she found difficult to imagine."
Kendra Kandlestar and the Box of Whispers Fodi p. 45
143. In what book did a character find ways to cheat his customers into buying his products?
Matilda Dahl p. 22
144. In what book does it say, "Back in the room, she took off the coolie clothes and placed them on the window seat"?
White Jade Tiger Lawson p. 67
145. In what book does a character remark, "Only eyes from the sea could possibly have known what I was doing, and there were no eyes out there to see me"?
Kensuke's Kingdom Morpurgo p. 88

146. In what book does a character think that "the world beyond the apartment still seemed vast and unknowable"?
- Masterpiece Broach p. 55
147. In what book was one of the characters fond of "seafaring men"?
- Harry's Mad King-Smith p. 64
148. In what book did a father state that no one ever got rich being honest?
- Matilda Dahl p. 23
149. In what book is the main character a 12-year-old boy who has 2 older brothers?
- Among the Hidden Haddix p. 214
150. In what book were questions discouraged?
- Capture, The Lasky p. 31
151. In what book does a character realize, "It was different in those days. Forbidding and mysterious. Alleys and twisted passageways, strange sights and sounds and smells"?
- White Jade Tiger Lawson p. 70
152. In what book is a book of fiction seen as a history book where "every story is an account of something that really happened"?
- Sisters Grimm Book 1 Buckley p. 66
153. In what book does a pet enjoy playing board games?
- Harry's Mad King-Smith p. 31
154. In what book did a character live with rude, belligerent and unbearable people?
- Matilda Dahl p. 65
155. In what book were characters given "number designation"?
- Capture, The Lasky p. 72
156. In what book will you find this description, "Glancing over her shoulder she caught the flash of steel whizzing through the air, heard the cry, felt her knee buckle and slam against the rail, felt her head smash on the wooden tie. Then all was darkness"?
- White Jade Tiger Lawson p. 144
157. In what book does the story take place during the building of the C.P.R., 1880-1885?
- White Jade Tiger Lawson p. 0

158. In what book can a character "see the workings of the lock with perfect clarity, but have no idea how to move the mechanism and unlock the door"?
- Masterpiece Broach p. 231
159. In what book does a character remark, "There were a thousand mysteries, a thousand things I wanted to know"?
- Kensuke's Kingdom Morpurgo p. 104
160. In what book did a character think "It was hard to imagine him sneaking around and leaving a rose on anyone's doormat, but I guess boys will surprise you sometimes"?
- When You Reach Me Stead p. 107
161. In what book did "kids with any money, even just a little, go out for lunch unless something is going on and they won't let us, like the first week of school, when there was a man running down Broadway stark naked and we all had to eat in the school cafeteria while the police tried to catch him"?
- When You Reach Me Stead p. 35
162. In what book does a character say, "I feel like you and I have gotten off to a bad start somehow. Can I buy you a cup of coffee? Please? To make up for your trouble coming all the way here again?"
- Masterpiece Broach p. 87
163. In what book did a character mysteriously gather strength and lift into flight?
- Capture, The Lasky p. 77
164. In what book does a character remark, "I felt as an orphan must feel, abandoned and alone in the world. I was frightened, I was angry, I was completely bewildered"?
- Kensuke's Kingdom Morpurgo p. 73
165. In what book do characters receive anonymous notes in their lockers?
- Swindle Korman p. 117
166. In what book does one character not like another because of "the way he dresses ... the way he checks himself in the mirror" and "the way he peers around when he kisses Mom"?
- Noses Are Red Scrimger p. 3
167. In what book does a farmer attempt to set up a hydroponics growing operation?
- Among the Hidden Haddix p. 100

168. In what book does a character think that "the pumpkins had all been carved with faces, just like jack-o-lanterns, and were glaring back with scowls even more fierce than his own"?
- Kendra Kandlestar and the Box of Whispers Fodi p. 14
169. In what book does a character begin having dreams the night her mom was killed in a car accident and for "the most part, (the dreams) unfolded as they had in the beginning, clear and luminous"?
- White Jade Tiger Lawson p. 25
170. In what book does a character describe himself as feeling, "More and more isolated, more and more wretched"?
- Kensuke's Kingdom Morpurgo p. 92
171. In what book does a character say, "it's like when you tell a lie, and then you have to tell more lies because of it, to cover it up. Have you ever done that? And even if it's horrible and embarrassing to be caught, it's a relief at some level... you know"?
- Masterpiece Broach p. 276
172. In what book is there an "enormous facial disk"?
- Capture, The Lasky p. 165
173. In what book does a bully say "I'm field-testing my new invention, the DumbPick. Sorry, I thought your head was a coconut"?
- Swindle Korman p. 43
174. In what book did a character enjoy living with almost anyone but her parents?
- Matilda Dahl p. 240
175. In what book does a character think, "a grown-up leaving me is hard to take. Especially a grown-up guy"?
- Noses Are Red Scrimger p. 68
176. In what book does a character do this: "spread it flat and set about meticulously folding it and rolling it, exactly as he did with his blanket and towel"?
- Masterpiece Broach p. 213
177. In what book did one character note that the law forbade her to hit someone with a riding crop?
- Matilda Dahl p. 123

178. In what book was there a character who had brought the art of skulduggery to a high point of perfection?
Matilda Dahl p. 108
179. In what book will you find this quote, "There were so many symbols: a chicken for happiness, a cricket for good luck, a tortoise for long life"?
White Jade Tiger Lawson p. 52
180. In what book do we find unbelievably rich Barons?
Among the Hidden Haddix p. 31
181. In what book is the following description found: "In the middle of the clearing sits a trim little cabin. The door is shiny red. The chimney is smoking cheerfully"?
Noses Are Red Scrimger p. 60
182. In what book does a character explain "I don't know what's good news or bad news anymore"?
Swindle Korman p. 234
183. In what book did a character think "if someone sat on my legs and forced me to name the day the whole true story began, I'd say it was the day Sal got punched"?
When You Reach Me Stead p. 20
184. In what book did a character point at a book and say "Time travel. Some people think it's possible. Except those ladies lied, at the beginning of the book"?
When You Reach Me Stead p. 49
185. In what book does a character experience "a wave of claustrophobia even though he was accustomed to small dark places"?
Masterpiece Broach p. 189
186. In what book does a character question the fact that it is, "6:00 already? There was no way to figure the passing of time"?
White Jade Tiger Lawson p. 68
187. In what book does a character fall off a bike when seeing a for sale sign?
Swindle Korman p. 55
188. In what book does a character use a computer to organise a protest rally?
Among the Hidden Haddix p. 71
189. In what book was there resentment in a family right from the start?
Capture, The Lasky p. 1

190. In what book do we read, "The old man was standing over me, his eyes full of rage and hurt"?

Kensuke's Kingdom Morpurgo p. 95

191. In what book does a character reminisce, "We had some great days on the water. We'd go out when it was rough, when no one else would, and we'd go skimming over the waves, exhilarating in the speed of it the sheer joy of it"?

Kensuke's Kingdom Morpurgo p. 4

1. In what book does a character say: "And one I saw the door and figured out what had happened, I, too, hoped you might have been able to change his mind"?
Unwanted, The McMann p. 279
2. In what book is a character not impressed with the number of times that his father had tried to come to one of his games, but knew that he could count the number of times that his father had actually made it to a game on one hand?
We All Fall Down Walters p. 54
3. In what book do we find the following, "Scared the way she must have been the day she fell into the hole"?
One and Only Ivan, The Applegate p. 275
4. In what book does a character state, "Girls like us, we stick together"?
Uprising Haddix p. 165
5. In what book does a character state, "I'm standing up for myself"?
Uprising Haddix p. 174
6. In what book does a character learn that a building has 104 passenger elevators?
We All Fall Down Walters p. 39
7. In what book does the main character "paint what they see in their head. Things that don't exist"?
One and Only Ivan, The Applegate p. 188
8. In what book does a character enter a burning shed to save someone's life?
I Am David Holm p. 70
9. In what book does a character curiously state, "I've always known there was something different about you, and your brothers, too"?
Savvy Law p. 101
10. In what book is the main character's best friend named "Stella"?
One and Only Ivan, The Applegate p. 7
11. In what book is a character describes as being "lazy and worthless like the rest of her tribe"?
Wings of Fire: The Dragonet Prophecy Sutherland p. 32
12. In what book does a character watch his pet green worm emerge from a cocoon as a moth with light brown wings?
City of Ember, The DuPrau p.

13. In what book is a character "picked up and thrown, sailing through the air"?
We All Fall Down Walters p. 189
14. In what book do students participate in co-op placements for the day?
We All Fall Down Walters p. 12
15. In what book does a character say "Hey, I get it. You're lovable or whatever. But you can't forgive her for this. She'll only get more possessive if she thinks she can get away with it"?
Wings of Fire: The Dragonet Prophecy Sutherland p. 213
16. In what book is a stowaway murdered?
True Confessions of Charlotte Doyle, The Avi p. 92
17. In what book did a character think, "I try not to think about death too much. I'm not good with endings. They make me too sad"?
Mango-shaped Space, A Mass p. 22
18. In what book does a character say: "he'll slip through and come out the opposite side, at the edge of the jungle where it meets the shore. He'll simply need to walk a bit farther to get back to where he started"?
Unwanted, The McMann p. 43
19. In what book is a character introduced to railway stations?
I Am David Holm p. 113
20. In what book is a character described in the following way, "His bald head was wrapped round and round with bandages. He had wires and tubes and machines to help him do everything, and his face was pale and sagging"?
Savvy Law p. 322
21. In what book does a character discover vermin in her bed?
True Confessions of Charlotte Doyle, The Avi p. 19
22. In what book does a character feel like a princess being led to her throne?
True Confessions of Charlotte Doyle, The Avi p. 52
23. In what book does a character raise "his chin slightly as his parents stood aside at the front door, allowing the boy to enter before them for the first time"?
Unwanted, The McMann p. 8
24. In what book is a character excited to be shown a globe?
I Am David Holm p. 93

25. In what book does a character think, "Why does the only person in the world who might see things the way I do have to be five years old"?
- Mango-shaped Space, A Mass p. 30
26. In what book does a character use a pillowcase for a travelling pack?
- City of Ember, The DuPrau p.
27. In what book does someone think that "Humans always smell odd when change is in the air"?
- One and Only Ivan, The Applegate p. 60
28. In what book is the world compared to a hot dog?
- Touching Spirit Bear Mikaelson p.
29. In what book does a character say, "This just means we can have a feast! We'll have all the goat meat we want!"
- Uprising Haddix p. 98
30. In what book does a character finally understand what music is?
- I Am David Holm p. 65
31. In what book does the main character like to throw "me-balls"?
- One and Only Ivan, The Applegate p. 15
32. In what book does a character agree to climb to great heights in order to be accepted as a member of a group?
- True Confessions of Charlotte Doyle, The Avi p. 119
33. In what book does the character wake up early to go swimming?
- Touching Spirit Bear Mikaelson p.
34. In what book does a character greet her son at last?
- I Am David Holm p. 153
35. In what book does a character repeatedly hear the plea, "I'm in the wall, I'm in the wall, I'm in the wall?"
- Savvy Law p. 282
36. In what book do you read: "The old man sat behind the desk and pressed a finger to his lips, looking disappointed and perhaps angry, but saying nothing, as if he were waiting to hear more"?
- Unwanted, The McMann p. 277

37. In what book does the view a character sees include the Statue of Liberty, Staten Island and the Atlantic ocean?
We All Fall Down Walters p. 42
38. In what book do characters stream "from the mansion and appeared to go about business as usual, which was all the more shocking"?
Unwanted, The McMann p. 24
39. In what book does a character "get a sandwich and take it to eat at her favourite spot behind the library where trees grew densely on a steep hillside"?
Hurt Go Happy Rorby p. 97
40. In what book does a character "pout for hours... and only relent after a bribe of an apple, two Oreo cookies, and a box of raisins"?
Hurt Go Happy Rorby p. 57
41. In what book does a character say "I'm serious! You've always said we have to stick together. You always stop the others from fighting. You should tell them that means we have to trust each other, too. And you should tell them to be better listeners. You know, to everyone?"
Wings of Fire: The Dragonet Prophecy Sutherland p. 269
42. In what book does a character honestly answer "Of course I am. But you're still better company than the pigeons. All they want to talk about is nest design and who to poop on"?
Wings of Fire: The Dragonet Prophecy Sutherland p. 136
43. In what book does a character say "That's very sweet." She yawned again. "I'm going to take a nap"?
Wings of Fire: The Dragonet Prophecy Sutherland p. 42
44. In what book is New York city described as being the "center of the universe"?
We All Fall Down Walters p. 37
45. In what book was the sky always dark?
City of Ember, The DuPrau p.
46. In what book does a character state, "She's in pain and in mourning and we can help!"
Uprising Haddix p. 139
47. In what book is there a character who digs up potatoes that are "runny inside instead of hard, and they stink"?
City of Ember, The DuPrau p.

48. In what book does a character state "she was sent to a facility in Norman, Oklahoma. It's a kind of clearing house"?
- Hurt Go Happy Rorby p. 176
49. In what book is there a character "outside peeing on the roses" to "keep the deer from eating the garden"?
- Hurt Go Happy Rorby p. 13
50. In what book does a character dream that he is a helpless bird?
- Touching Spirit Bear Mikaelson p.
51. In what book does a character have a mermaid tattooed on her arm?
- True Confessions of Charlotte Doyle, The Avi p. 76
52. In what book does the character "have to drive the twisty road to Willits where the bus stopped twice each weekend"?
- Hurt Go Happy Rorby p. 157
53. In what book does a character boast "It is magnificent and imposing!"..."Besides, we're the only ones with visions of the future, so there"?
- Wings of Fire: The Dragonet Prophecy Sutherland p. 106
54. In what book does the main character think "was it just the two of us in all the world, trapped in our own separate boxes"?
- One and Only Ivan, The Applegate p. 26
55. In what book do you find the following description, "I am a wild beast, my friend: untamed and undaunted"?
- One and Only Ivan, The Applegate p. 37
56. In what book does a character find "a trowel and a big basket in the storeroom, and from the pantry... a stack of wax paper sandwich bags to keep the dye mushrooms, which could make you sick, separate from the mushrooms they would eat"?
- Hurt Go Happy Rorby p. 17
57. In what book is the mayor a thief?
- City of Ember, The DuPrau p.
58. In what book does a character realize he is "so high up that planes were flying below me"?
- We All Fall Down Walters p. 44
59. In what book does the main character think that human "speak too much"?
- One and Only Ivan, The Applegate p. 3

60. In what book did one character ask another, "Did they make you run a maze with a big chunk of cheddar at the end"?
- Mango-shaped Space, A Mass p. 94
61. In what book does a character have a knack for disappearing and later turning up "behind a door or under (a) bed or beneath a pile of laundry"?
- Savvy Law p. 25
62. In what book does happiness always make a character want to run?
- City of Ember, The DuPrau p.
63. In what book can you find the following quotation; 'She's not sure if she likes you, or if she thinks you're a freak'?
- Savvy Law p. 116
64. In what book does a character think, "I can't believe I'm just discovering this. It makes me want to paint. It makes me want to sing"?
- Mango-shaped Space, A Mass p. 125
65. In what book does the main character realize the difference between a domain and a cage?
- One and Only Ivan, The Applegate p. 165
66. In what book does a character state "It says that scavengers have no scales, no wings, and no tail, and they walk on two legs, which sounds unstable to me"?
- Wings of Fire: The Dragonet Prophecy Sutherland p. 17
67. In what book did a character ask, "You think it's funny that I'm color-blind"?
- Mango-shaped Space, A Mass p. 203
68. In what book does a character, holding two colored pencils, remember "the powerful wanting she had felt in that dusty store, and (now) the feeling of it was mixed up with fear and shame and darkness"?
- City of Ember, The DuPrau p.
69. In what book does a character say. "I'll take her home with me"?
- Uprising Haddix p. 137
70. In what book do you read "He inhaled, hoping to catch the scent of the outside. But the only faint smell was of rotten eggs"?
- Wings of Fire: The Dragonet Prophecy Sutherland p. 72
71. In what book does a dog give its life freely in order to protect its master's life?
- I Am David Holm p. 148

72. In what book does a character dream of one day living in a country where he could live in safety?
I Am David Holm p. 56
73. In what book do the characters refer to where they live as "Nebransas" or "Kansaska" because they live right between Nebraska and Kansas?
Savvy Law p. 3
74. In what book do the characters find a door that they can't open because they can't find a "small steel pan"?
City of Ember, The DuPrau p.
75. In what book does a character speak several languages?
I Am David Holm p. 31
76. In what book does a character say, "Kids who totally ignored me before are clamoring to talk to me now. It would be more rewarding if it didn't have the overtones of a circus sideshow"?
Mango-shaped Space, A Mass p. 79
77. In what book does a character feel "like she was making a momentous decision"?
Uprising Haddix p. 194
78. In what book is a character told of one whose arm was amputated as punishment?
True Confessions of Charlotte Doyle, The Avi p. 39
79. In what book is a character shown a photo of his mother?
I Am David Holm p. 124
80. In what book do we hear about prisoners who make their own rule not to talk about food?
I Am David Holm p. 30
81. In what book can you find the following quotation, "We tried to explain again and again what had happened as people jotted notes into notepads."
Savvy Law p. 288
82. In what book does a character say: "Once we're in, we'll have a few encounters if the guards are still around, I imagine. You and I will freeze them up or some such thing; then we'll seal the palace"?
Unwanteds, The McMann p. 343
83. In what book is the main character given finger paint to play with?
One and Only Ivan, The Applegate p. 159

84. In what book did a character say that going to the country store makes the character feel like a character from "Little House on the Prairie"?
- Mango-shaped Space, A Mass p. 157
85. In what book is a character asked to select a victim for punishment?
- True Confessions of Charlotte Doyle, The Avi p. 95
86. In what book does a character daydream about a reunion with her family?
- True Confessions of Charlotte Doyle, The Avi p. 193
87. In what book does a character pause and say in a choked voice, "it's Poppa." ?
- Savvy Law p. 9
88. In what book is "the train sitting in the station with only one door open"?
- Hurt Go Happy Rorby p. 214
89. In what book are rocks compared to both ancestors and anger?
- Touching Spirit Bear Mikaelson p.
90. In what book did a character think, "I remember when Halloween was my favorite holiday. Now I'd forgotten all about it"?
- Mango-shaped Space, A Mass p. 137
91. In what book does a character watch her mother make a pie in which the crust rolls out "soft and smooth as silk - perfect as perfect"?
- Savvy Law p. 96
92. In what book did a character state, "Are you aware that each year forty-five million turkeys are killed for Thanksgiving"?
- Mango-shaped Space, A Mass p. 162
93. In what book does the main character "make pictures for the gift shop"?
- One and Only Ivan, The Applegate p. 226
94. In what book does this quotation come from "She looked down at the blackened earth and curled her tail in close to make her imprint as small as possible"?
- Wings of Fire: The Dragonet Prophecy Sutherland p. 248
95. In what book does a character exclaim "It's ... it's snowing" and then notice that some of the snowflakes were glowing red?
- We All Fall Down Walters p. 64
96. In what book is a friendship almost destroyed by mutual distrust?
- True Confessions of Charlotte Doyle, The Avi p. 186

97. In what book do we learn that it is common place for the father not to make it home in time to eat dinner with his family?
We All Fall Down Walters p. 17
98. In what book is the sighting of a bird taken to mean that a storm is close by?
True Confessions of Charlotte Doyle, The Avi p. 138
99. In what book does the main character not have "any fancy gadgets" like television at home?
Savvy Law p. 22
100. In what book is a character convinced that she will slip and fall to her death, either by drowning or by breaking her neck?
True Confessions of Charlotte Doyle, The Avi p. 125
101. In what book do you read this description of an office "It was empty and eerie...televisions turned off...computer screens blank...but the telephones never stopped ringing"?
We All Fall Down Walters p. 79
102. In what book does a character explain that his/her father works in an office?
We All Fall Down Walters p. 14
103. In what book does a character note, "for the first time the other girls looked at her with something like respect"?
Uprising Haddix p. 114
104. In what book does a tree fall during a lightning storm?
Touching Spirit Bear Mikaelson p.
105. In what book does a character choke on grass?
Touching Spirit Bear Mikaelson p.
106. In what book does a character say "And the fire is coming from the rocks. What if you picked up the rocks and moved them? You could put the fire somewhere else and open the doorway for us, couldn't you?"
Wings of Fire: The Dragonet Prophecy Sutherland p. 203
107. In what book does a character hkeep hearing s sing-song voice inside her head saying 'it will be all right, it will be all right?'"
Savvy Law p. 214
108. In what book does someone dream about "a sharp stick"?
One and Only Ivan, The Applegate p. 162

109. In what book does a character say: "And because of that failure on my part, she came up with the plan to segregate the least useful in our society"?
- Unwanted, The McMann p. 345
110. In what book did a character think "Reading always makes me tired because sometimes I get so caught up in the rainbow like colors of the words that I have to read passages over and over"?
- Mango-shaped Space, A Mass p. 44
111. In what book do you read: "No one could even see the lake, because the towering cement-block walls that surrounded the land reached all the way up to the barbed-wire ceiling?"
- Unwanted, The McMann p. 0
112. In what book is a character treated like a dog?
- I Am David Holm p. 129
113. In what book does a character notice it "was heavy when she pulled it out and her first thought was that it had somehow filled with rainwater, but when she picked it up by a corner, a package fell out"?
- Hurt Go Happy Rorby p. 82
114. In what book does a character say of a river, "If you fall in, there is no hope of fishing you out. The river swallows you and sweeps you away"?
- City of Ember, The DuPrau p.
115. In what book is a character charged with murder?
- True Confessions of Charlotte Doyle, The Avi p. 156
116. In what book does a character feel "He could save her. He could save all of them. He just had to survive the river first"?
- Wings of Fire: The Dragonet Prophecy Sutherland p. 63
117. In what book did one character ask another, "Did they make you run a maze with a big chunk of cheddar at the end"?
- Mango-shaped Space, A Mass p. 94
118. In what book does the main character beat up a classmate?
- Touching Spirit Bear Mikaelsen p.
119. In what book does a person's wet and heavy hair feel like a blindfold?
- True Confessions of Charlotte Doyle, The Avi p. 142

120. In what book does a team of people sort through the trash in search of anything useful?
City of Ember, The DuPrau p.
121. In what book does a character think, "We've never spoken about that day at the vet's office either. It's like an unspoken agreement"?
Mango-shaped Space, A Mass p. 127
122. In what book do you read, "Pride has no place on this island"?
Touching Spirit Bear Mikaelson p.
123. In what book is a beaver carved of wood because he taught lessons to the character?
Touching Spirit Bear Mikaelson p.
124. In what book does one character say to another, "So you read minds, do you? ... I knew there was something mental about you"?
Savvy Law p. 165
125. In what book does the main character has always known precisely how many days he has been in his domain?
One and Only Ivan, The Applegate p. 144
126. In what book does this quotation come from "As he lost consciousness, his last thought was, I failed them"?
Wings of Fire: The Dragonet Prophecy Sutherland p. 73
127. In what book does a character think it would be strange to have a blue sky?
City of Ember, The DuPrau p.
128. In what book does a character start crying... not "pretty delicate crying, either. It was full-on, snot-dripping, chest-wheezing, jibber-jabber wailing."
Savvy Law p. 293
129. In what book did a character reminisce that the grandfather's soul, "isn't wandering the woods like ghosts I sometimes think I glimpse between the trees"?
Mango-shaped Space, A Mass p. 21
130. In what book does a character set off for her native land without travelling companions?
True Confessions of Charlotte Doyle, The Avi p. 15
131. In what book are Snickers bars served for dessert?
Touching Spirit Bear Mikaelson p.

132. In what book did two characters refer to their activities as "PIC missions" and PIC meant "Partners in Crime"?
- Mango-shaped Space, A Mass p. 10
133. In what book does a character say "But thank you for doing insanely dangerous things for me anyway"?
- Wings of Fire: The Dragonet Prophecy Sutherland p. 108
134. In what book is a character awakened by something warm and hairy?
- I Am David Holm p. 11
135. In what book does a character state, "You can't expect to change the world in a few short months"?
- Uprising Haddix p. 183
136. In what book does a "woman take a phone from her briefcase and hold it for the man to see as she punched in 911"?
- Hurt Go Happy Rorby p. 196
137. In what book do you read: As the children ate, the teenagers formed two rows facing them. A rousing but pleasant noise burst from the nearby bushes, and the group stated words of welcome in a most peculiar way"?
- Unwanteds, The McMann p. 33
138. In what book do characters go on an incredibly wild boat ride?
- City of Ember, The DuPrau p.
139. In what book does a character say: "Remember when we made houses in the mud with the bone? Do you?"
- Unwanteds, The McMann p. 264
140. In what book does a senior character pause "in the doorway for a split second and then, perhaps heavily, continued up the steps without looking back. He took a seat on the opposite side of the bus"?
- Unwanteds, The McMann p. 15
141. In what book do two male characters take turns carrying a female character?
- We All Fall Down Walters p. 144
142. In what book does a character use a toothbrush for the first time?
- I Am David Holm p. 87

143. In what book do you read "All of her beautiful colors faded away. The shadows and crags behind her appeared perfectly reproduced"?
- Wings of Fire: The Dragonet Prophecy Sutherland p. 62
144. In what book does a character say, "You may never get a chance to do something like this again!"
- Uprising Haddix p. 112
145. In what book is a character given help in order to escape from a concentration camp?
- I Am David Holm p. 6
146. In what book does a ring land in "smashed monkey dung"?
- Uprising Haddix p. 215
147. In what book do a character and a dog become friends?
- I Am David Holm p. 131
148. In what book does a character say to his father, "We're not stopping"?
- We All Fall Down Walters p. 147
149. In what book does a character state "There's a battle almost every day for Her Majesty's amusement. If you win enough battles, you go free"?
- Wings of Fire: The Dragonet Prophecy Sutherland p. 124
150. In what book does a character state, "I'd be proud to take you and your friends down there!"
- Uprising Haddix p. 113
151. In what book do we learn that 20 000 people work in just one building?
- We All Fall Down Walters p. 40
152. In what book does a character state, "I know how easy it is to make wrong choices and end up in difficult situations, but things don't always turn out badly."
- Savvy Law p. 298
153. In what book can you find the following quotation, " 'I don't know what you want me to tell you,' I said, feeling false and fickle, knowing exactly what he wanted to hear and knowing that I could never tell him?"
- Savvy Law p. 100
154. In what book does a character "wrapped in a towel, pull her stool out and climb up onto the edge of the bathroom counter... and squeeze out a big glob of Crest"?
- Hurt Go Happy Rorby p. 145

155. In what book is a character called "bug-boy" by his peers?
City of Ember, The DuPrau p.
156. In what book was there a character who recalled, "my feet were freezing in the sandals that in my humble opinion no one should have to wear in northern Illinois in the middle of December" ?
Mango-shaped Space, A Mass p. 1
157. In what book did a character say, "I've studied some unusual cases. As luck would have it, I'm one of the few researchers in the world who has experience with your condition" ?
Mango-shaped Space, A Mass p. 82
158. In what book is a character imprisoned in a cage of iron bars with little hope of proving her innocence?
True Confessions of Charlotte Doyle, The Avi p. 157
159. In what book can you find the quotation, "We can't know the troubles she's seen—imagine, if that were our family" ?
Uprising Haddix p. 150
160. In what book is a women found "pinned beneath a fallen file cabinet" ?
We All Fall Down Walters p. 130
161. In what book does a character say "singing is a joyful thing. More than anything, I want you to hear music again, but learn to sing with your hands" ?
Hurt Go Happy Rorby p. 164
162. In what book does a character decide that the truth is the only proof he needs?
Touching Spirit Bear Mikaelson p.
163. In what book does a character say: "Remind me that we'll need to come back and feed these guards in a few days, will you" ?
Unwanteds, The McMann p. 351
164. In what book does a Tlingit elder teach lessons about life by pushing someone onto the floor?
Touching Spirit Bear Mikaelson p.
165. In what book do you read: "The tall, thin figure that had emerged from the gray building—now mansion—was a man dressed in flowing multicolored robes" ?
Unwanteds, The McMann p. 20

166. In what book does a character stop "once to look back at the geese and wonder how they'd found one another, and how they knew this was where they should be"?
- Hurt Go Happy Rorby p. 162
167. In what book do the characters do a dance to show what they have learned about a whale?
- Touching Spirit Bear Mikaelson p.
168. In what book does a character turn down a reward for finding a stranger's glasses?
- I Am David Holm p. 49
169. In what book does a character notice "her left thumb was damp and wrinkled. It had been so long since she'd awakened to find her thumb wet that she'd lulled herself into thinking she'd finally outgrown sucking it"?
- Hurt Go Happy Rorby p. 10
170. In what book does a character think, "We're like tinder. Just one spark, that's all we need"?
- Uprising Haddix p. 106
171. In what book does the main character like "to have sips of soda poured into his mouth like a bubbling waterfall"?
- One and Only Ivan, The Applegate p. 133
172. In what book is a character "strangely embarrassed to have sparked such excitement"?
- Uprising Haddix p. 118
173. In what book does the memory of a bear's eyes have a calming effect on a character?
- Touching Spirit Bear Mikaelson p.
174. In what book is the main character never angry?
- One and Only Ivan, The Applegate p. 9
175. In what book does a character say, "I doubt if you let it pass whether it can be created again in five or ten years of a generation"?
- Uprising Haddix p. 107
176. In what book is a character terror-stricken by a grotesque carving?
- True Confessions of Charlotte Doyle, The Avi p. 61
177. In what book does a character say: "And my father must have really wanted to get rid of me." She shrugged off the hurt. "What about you? Do you think about your parents or your brother"?
- Unwanted, The McMann p. 218

178. In what book does a character say "You killed my brother. You left me here. And it's your fault my friend is dead. I may not want you dead, but I don't want to know you"?
- Wings of Fire: The Dragonet Prophecy Sutherland p. 185
179. In what book can you find the following quote, "Humans. Sometimes they make chimps look smart"?
- One and Only Ivan, The Applegate p. 212
180. In what book does a character say: "And you chose to lie to me, and bring me there under the guise of refining oil. So that we could declare quite openly to the entire pathetic place that we were dumbfounded to discover their existence"?
- Unwanted, The McMann p. 316
181. In what book does a cake get thrown against a door?
- Touching Spirit Bear Mikaelson p.
182. In what book does a character "construct a wire basket to surround the bush to keep the deer from eating the flowers"?
- Hurt Go Happy Rorby p. 255
183. In what book do the characters choose to watch an event on TV rather than witness it with their own eyes?
- We All Fall Down Walters p. 68
184. In what book is there a tradition "that everyone who played an instrument brought it for the after dinner sing-along"?
- Hurt Go Happy Rorby p. 154
185. In what book does a character burn down a shelter?
- Touching Spirit Bear Mikaelson p.
186. In what book does it state "the sleeping platform was new and a tire hung from a single long rope"?
- Hurt Go Happy Rorby p. 243
187. In what book did a character get a painful jolt through his body when he took apart electric outlets to see how the wires inside were wound together?
- City of Ember, The DuPrau p.
188. In what book does a character say: "I'm not dead. But you will be soon if you don't listen to me. If you don't come with me. Please"?
- Unwanted, The McMann p. 262

189. In what book does a man return terrified from a visit from the Unknown regions?
City of Ember, The DuPrau p.
190. In what book is a character arrested for "spreading vicious rumours"?
City of Ember, The DuPrau p.
191. In what book does a character state, "(It's) not a sickness or a disease. It's not magic or sorcery, either. (It's) in your blood. It's an inheritance, like your brown eyes or your grandma's long toes or her talent for dancing to polka music?"
Savvy Law p. 121
192. In what book does a character think, "God made me, too. And He made me to fight"?
Uprising Haddix p. 90